- Travel insurance.
- Israel visa for non-Australian passport holders.

Travel insurance that covers archaeological digging is compulsory for participation in this tour. You may set up a payment plan with Jo Khoo in order to pay for your deposit and balance through regular installments.

Important Dates:

1 December 2016: $500 deposit and application form required.

Upon approval of your application, the deposit will become non-refundable. It may be claimed back through travel insurance if you have to withdraw due to unforeseen circumstances.

NB The quoted costs are dependent on the availability of airfares. As soon as the minimum number of participants (7) is reached, flights will be booked for those participants. The sooner you submit your application form and deposit, the greater the chance of the cost remaining as quoted. If the cost of airfares increases, you will be notified and given the opportunity to withdraw from the tour without loss of your deposit.

20 January 2017: $1000 installment due.

Cancellation conditions and penalties apply from this date onwards.

1 March 2017: Final balance due. This is the ACT Census Date for this unit. If you withdraw from this unit after 1 March 2017, you will incur a FEE-HELP debt for this tour.

Please fill out the attached form and return it to Gillian Asquith at MST with a copy of the photograph page of your passport. Additional paperwork will be distributed in due course. If you do not wish to mail or email your credit card details, please fill out the rest of the form and call MST Reception to pay over the phone.

If you do not have a passport yet, please fill out your name exactly as it appears on your birth certificate or certified change of name documentation.

Contact Gillian Asquith with any queries (9881 7800 or gasquith@mst.edu.au).
